FROM THE SOCI WORLD

MR. AND MRS ALBERT L. MORRIS mounce the Spinsterhood of their Daughter, HARRIST. Commencing June 1, 1993. Corner Second and Walnut Streets, San Diego, California.

One hundred persons in St. Louis-pos-sibly more-received a smartly engraved card, with the above wording last week. It is safe to say that these one hundred persons read the card with interest, curiosity and, finally, excitement. Unless some of them have received later information from San Diego, they are still wondering, To begin at the beginning, the Morris

To begin at the beginning, the Morris family, very well known five or six years ago when they lived in a handsomely furnished home in South Compton avenue, departed from St. Louis and were rather lost track of by their friends here. They paid no visits to their old home, that I remember; so have traveled abread; and finally removed to California with hur few nevers knowing that when they have record to their when the water well as the second of their when the second in the second of their when their when the second of their when the second of their when the second of th with but few persons knowing their where-abouts. Miss Harriet Morris was a Smith graduate of four years ago; and is of course still in touch with her classmates in town. She was ever an original girl, decidedly artistic in her tastes, and more than usually clever. So most people when they read the pretty card of invitation, said th a few laughs:

Well, there must be some joke in it.

Harriet always did love to mystify us."

I am happily in the possession of personal and private information as to the intelligibility of the card, and am also able to state emphatically that Miss Morris does intend a joke or anything approaching

Her notion is entirely serious. Oh, quite so. She writes to say, entre nous, that hav-ing reached an age when she is entitled to all the perquisites of spinsterhood, she prooses to make that fact known, to spread broadcast, and to therefore declare boldly er emancipation from the trameling and veratious duties, responsibilities and de-privations—particularly the latter—to which young maidenhood is heiress. She now ses to do as she pleases, and to boldy fling down the glove of defiance to all who declare that the chief end of woman is Man. Henceforth Miss Morris will go on her way free and rejoicing at her dep from conventionality and from the numer-ous trials that beset every maiden who knows that marry she must, whether she wants to or not. At least this is what Miss Morris says.

But may we believe her? Let us calmly and dispassionately review

Miss Morris, as I remember her, was an attractive and interesting girl four years ago, then about 21 years of age. Not exactly a raving beauty, but good looking enough to command more than a passing glauce. She is superfinely educated—perhaps oversilling of the superfinely educated of the superfinely haps overcultured—if you can understand such an ambiguous term; understands the arts and sciences and possesses a refined wish and suit every taste and fancy.

Gifts for Graduates!

Fine Pictures and Posters.

Lace Fans, Jewelry and Shell Goods,

Bohemian and Rich Gold Glassware,

Artists' Materials and Outfits.

AT ALOE'S-an almost endless array of beautiful and appropriate articles for gift-giving-a larger and more varied assortment than anywhere else in this city.

Every department-every case and counter-offers a thousand happy suggestions-articles to meet every

Kodaks, Cameras and Supplies,

Kayser Zinn and Art Nouveau Ware,

Handsome Gold and Silver Novelties,

Wrist Bags, Music Rolls and Leather Goods,

Fine Cut Glass and Dainty China,

Imported Bronzes and Choice Marbles,

Opera Glasses and Lorgnettes,

Bric-a-Brac in endless variety.

MISS KATHERINE KINNEY,
Of Westminster place, a vocalist of prominence.

and sensitive temperament; knows music down to the ground, and, I believe, com-poses well; has written some organ music that somebody said was good. Wears her clothes well and selects good ones to wear.
An unusually fine girl, all round, Exactly.
Now, such a young woman has naturally not lived without suitors. Loads of them.

They have, I gather from the announcement card, been men of average type. nent card, been men of average type.

Just plain men. Probably none of them as well up in things as herself. They knew and deplored this fact. But they worshiped. How could they help themselves?

And were spurned,
Alas! 'Tis even so.
Harriet, having been much adored, grew

Being clever-too clever to use the ordina y "want ad" department of any reputable saily paper of size and importance, though the Pacific Coast abounds with many suc she cast about for a more ingenious and refined balt.

It must cater to a man who had a strong but delicate sense of humor; a refined and uplifted soul graved card.

And from a stationer of national reputa

Between ourselves, did you ever know Between ourselves, did you ever know a man to look for the stationer's stamp under the envelope flap the first thing? No, indeed; only a woman thinks of such vitally important matters when she gets her dearest friend's wedding or spinster cards. To resume: Harriet, glowing with joy at her original and subtle idea, writes the form and sends out the cards. Then she indites explanatory notes to a chosen few, which are calculated to pull the lamb's wool over our eyes very nicely.

our eyes very nicely.
But they didn't. Oh, no.
You are discovered, humorous Harrietdiscovered and hereby exposed. There are more ways to entice the unwary Californian bachelor than to sit on the front plazza and swing in a gay red Mexican hammock. There are more mere masculines hoodwinked by appeals to their intellectuality than by feeding them with sugar plums, though that statement will be disputed by ome women, I fancy. Congratulations, dear Harriet, are in orer, or will be ere the autumn leaves begin to fall. Not congratulations on your self-imposed (?) condition of solitary blessed-ness, as you would have us believe; but con-gratulations that the One and Only has had the keen perception to hunt you out.

Several well-known women of society will at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. Solos and choruses will be sung, and the programme promises to be a varied and delightful one. Mrs. Da-vid R. Calhoun, who has been studying indefatigably with Mme. Farish this past defatigably with Mme. Farish this past year, is to sing, and has a surprise in store for her friends, none of whom have been even permitted to know that she found time among her many social and domestic duties for scales and trills. The Misses Flora and Rena Dula, Bertha Blackwelder, Elizabeth Robertson of Mexico, Bessie Maxwell also of Mexico, Clara Ewald Mrs. well, also of Mexico; Clara Ewald, Mrs. Peyton Carr, Mrs. C. T. Clark, are some of those who will give pleasure to their audience on Friday evening.

Mrs. Blair gave her annual entertainment to the active members of the Morning Cho-ral on Friday afternoon. The garden party idea had to be abandoned, as the spacious lawn and gardens were soaked; but the house at Airdrie is so unusual and so beautiful that every guest rather enjoyed the novelty of an afternoon indoors. Up in the big third-story music room, Mrs. Bessle Bown Ricker of Chicago gave some inter-esting recitations, and a new monologue when the guests had arrived by private Suburban car at half after 4, and later there were some gay little guessing games and mental contests, with pretty prizes as re-wards to the clever ones. Quantities of red and white honeysuckles

Quantities of red and white honeysucker from the gardens, trimmed the rooms and made the entire house a fragrant bower. Refreshments were served at the close of the games, and fully sustained the reputation of Mrs. Blair's cuisine. In the early evening everybody came back to town on a private car, dectaring the outing to have been a perfect one. Only the Morning Choral "actives" and the Kirkwood Choral members were guests. members were guests.
SERENA LAMB.

WEDDINGS.

Mermod & Jaccard's-Broadway and Lo

The marriage of Mr. Edward Joy and Miss Grace Shands will take place Tuesday, June 2, at 8 o'clock, in the Emmanuel Church, Old Orchard, Miss Bessie Joy, cousin of the bridegroom, will serve as maid of honor, and Mr. Clair Shands will be best man. The Misses Maud Chamberlain and Jennie Whitmore are to be bridesmalds, and Mr. Matt Chestnut and Mr. Milo Shands the groomsmen. A reception will follow the ceremony at the bride's residence.

Big Four the only line running through sleepers between St. Louis and Boston.

Miss Cecilia Naughton of No. 1518 South Jefferson avenue will be married to Alfred M. Lane Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Minette Naughton, and Edgar Nash will serve in a similar capacity for Mr. Lane. A reception at the home of the bride will follow the ceremony. After a brief wedding trip the couple will be at home at No. 1518 South Jefferson avenue.

The following account of last week's Jarvis-Goodman wedding, from the New York Herald, is of interest:

"There was an attractive wedding yesterday at All Saints' Church, Harrison, N. Y., when Miss Elnora Jarvis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanuel M. Jarvis of this city and Harrison, was married to Mr. Charles E. Goodman, son of Doctor and Mrs. C. H. Goodman, son of Doctor and Mrs. C. H. Goodman of St. Louis. The church was decorated with palms and white flowers.

"The bride wore a gown of white claire delune, made with full court train and trimmed, with flounces of Brussels point which had adorned the bridal gown of her mother. She wore a peafi necklace that had been worn by her mother as a bride and carried a shower bouquet of lilles of the valley.

"Mrs. Edmund G. Vaughan the bridele delice."

carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

"Mrs. Edmund G. Vaughan, the bride's sister, was her matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Sarah Duke, Ficrence Paul, Florence Taylor, Clara Burgess, Kate Clark and Tayo Newton. Little Julia Conklin was the flower girl.

"Mr. Hugh Jarvis, the bride's brother, acted as best man. The ushers were Messrs. Ray Spencer, G. N. Hitchcock and J. E. Duncan of St. Louis, John T. Norton, Jr., of Albany; Robert Gould of Bridgeport and Charles Gehrmann of this city.

"A reception followed at the country home of the bride's parents, after which Mr. and Mrs. Goodman left for the camp of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Darling, in the Adirondacks which was loaned for the honeymoon."

Novelties in Buckle Pins-Mermod

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sieumer of No. 2817 North Twenty-third street, announce the engagement of their oldest daughter, Aman-da J., to. Louis B. Berkebile of Columbia, Mo. The date of the wedding has not been decided, but will be announced in the near future.

MUSICALES.

A June musicale that is being anticipated will be given at the Odeon Recital Hall on Saturday. June 6, by pupils of Mrs. Mae Sherrey Hagebush, assisted by Miss Rehm, harpist (Switzerlarin), and Miss Albattson, soprano. The participants will include Miss Meta Shanfert and Aima Schaufert, Miss Gertrude Reder, Miss Hattle Smith, Miss Gertrude Reder, Miss Hattle Smith, Miss Naomi Childers, Miss Hattle Smith, Miss Maoni Childers, Miss Deulah Barnard, Miss Jessle Pocock, Miss Beulah Barnard, Miss Josephine Dickson, Miss Marion Leddin, Miss Pauline Ellison, Miss Theresa, Jones, Miss Jennie Holton, Miss Marie Lefavor, Miss Margaret Brennan, Miss Gertrude Brennan, Miss Lillian Langau, Miss Elizabeth, Hawk and Miss Alice Benton.

A "Spring Song" recital was given to be ladies of the King's Highway C. P. church by Mrs. Taylor Bernard, soprano, at her home. No. 5023 Fairmount avenue, on Tuesday evening.

Fraulein Melanie Rihen, harpist, and Mr. Arthur Lieber, planist, aseisted.

The programme follows:

Parish-Alvard Hasselman Beckerd (a) Spring Song
(b) Two Lily Songs
(c) Spring Has Come
Among the guests were:
dessicurs and Mesdames
A. C. Stewart, Thomas A. Scott, J. R. Griffith, I. H. Orr. Dill. Carroll, Breckinridge,

Mary Dill, Clara Miller, Lucile Bernard, Sadie Albertson, Virginia Heald, Laura Kimbrough, Annie Jones, Jos. Kimbrough, J. L. McDowall, W. W. P. Walton Steele, Doctor Harris, Hugh Fullerton. W. W. Hoxton, Sterling Jones,

Mabel Pearson,

Rich Cut Glass-Mermod & Jaccard's.

The Carnation Coffee Club was pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Charles Becker of No. 5900 Lee avenue Wednesday afternoon, in honor of her birthday. The club will next meet at Mrs. F. W. Krenning's, No. 3234 Barrett street, June 3.

SOCIAL CLURS.

Mrs. J. D. Williamson entertained the Golden Rod Euchre Club Wednesday. Euchre was played and after luncheon was served the prizes were given to Mmes. L. Caldwell Scarlet, C. Riehl and W. Biendorn. Those present were M. Blackwell, L. Caldwell, C. Craig, L. Satfield,

Mesdames— C. Wolzendorf, J. D. Williamson, C. Rehl, W. Blendorn, H. Blendorn, M. Brandt, Scarlet.

The C. B. C. class of 1903 were entertained on Wednesday evening by the Misses Mc-Keown at their residence on North Garrison avenue. Dancing, vocal and instrumental music were the features of the evening. Among those present were:

Messicurs—
W. Jackson, P. Riley,
J. Lonsinotte, J. Corley,
R. Obergon, H. Webb,
J. Lynch, C. Thompson,
W. Foley, J. Higgins,
F. O'Mailey, W. Bryan,
J. O'Mailey, B. McKeown,
F. Sweeney.

Misses— E. Mackle, N. Carroll, M. Bryan, L. Sweeney, R. Sweeney, L. Spross,

The Carondelet Women's Club had a reci-The Carondelet Women's Club had a reciprocity meeting at the residence of Miss Rose M. Cooper, No. 6708 Michigan avenue, Saturday afterneon. Ladles representing various clubs in the Eighth District of the Federated Clubs attended. Mrs. Cooper opened the meeting with an address of welcome. Mrs. Goodrich of the Arts and Crafts Club made a pleasant talk, followed by Mrs. Rhodes of the Tuesday Club. Mrs. Filckinger entertainingly told of the work done at the South Side Nursery. "Foll-Lore" was the subject of a paper read by Miss K. O. Hallorhan, Miss A. Blow concluded the programme with a poem on "Carondelet."

Wedding Silver-Mermod & Jaccard's. The Young Men's Social Club, No. 86, Order of Knights of Zion, entertained the members of the Daughters of Zion at Fraternal Hall Tuckday evening. The programme was of an unusual nature and was enjoyed by all, after which dancing was enjoyed.

Joyed.
Among those present were:
Misses—
Arna Seigel, B. Rich
B. Weinhaube, F. Fre
F. Hlank, R. Sob
R. Stiffelman, Dorris Serwinsky,
Messieurs— Jessleurs—
M. Perlmutter,
D. Weintraube,
J. Joseph,
M. Stiffelman,
M. Priss,
A. Silverberg,
L. Perlmutter,
J. C. Ansell, I. Levy, A. Saxe, J. B. Yatter, E. Lehr, B. Bond, George Elbert, M. Lanzorwitz, William Herman.

MISCELLANEOUS EVENTS.

Best Watches-Mermod & Jaccard's. A surprise party was given in honor of Miss Rose Feldman, on her birthday, on Sunday evening, at her home, No. 811 North Seventh street. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and dancing. Refreshments were served.

E. J. Musick entertained his fellow-graduates of the Manual Training School last Friday evening at his home, No. 4812 Labadie avenue. Old school troubles were told and contests and singing were induiged in until a late hour, after which refreshments were served. Mr. Sammelman won the colarbutton-flour contest and Mr. Adler came out victor in the checkerboard contest, and each was awarded a handsome medal. The —Photographed by Conkling.

Guest of Mrs. C. W. Martin of Dayton street.

house was arrayed in orange and black, the class colors.

These present were:
Messicurs— Stoockey, Bancroft, Harrington; Brown, Brown, Sammelman, Fessenden, Adler, Allyn, Blankenmeister, Soest Pest, Wipfler, Flohr, Wickenhauser, Musick.

Silk Umbrellas-Mermod & Jaccard's. Mrs. G. Hoffmann of No. 2802 St. Louis avenue entertained friends Thursday in honor of Mrs. L. Scales and her sister, Mrs. A. Hartman, who are visiting here from New York. Mrs. Hoffmann was assisted by her two daughters, Miss Margaret Hoffmann and Mrs. A. Ostermeyer. Some of those present were:

Mesdames—

A. Hartman, E. Obrock,
K. Schneider, A. Scholl,
Scales, A. Neuman

Scales, A. Schneider, G. Schneider, A. Nast,

E. Obrock,
A. Scholl,
A. Neuman,
W. Ostermeyer,
A. Kaltmeyer. Mary Zepp, Neu-stadt, Germany. Margaret Hoffmann

Morning, Noon and Night, Big Four trains

A party of young people went to Herman, Mo., last Sunday and enjoyed themselves at the Fair Grounds. Among those who were present were:

Emma Eirkumann, Ida Bauer, Mamie Osthoff, Sadie Bohl, B. R. Osthoff, Z. S. Birchler,
T. F. Schildmaker,
Edw. H. Trautwein
Edw. H. Trautwein
Edw. H. Trautwein
Anadie Schildmake
W. F. Sucker,
W. F. Sucker,
Fred G. Gebhard,
Albert J. Myers.

A surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keyes, No. 343 Lawton avenue, by friends last Friday evening. Games, dancing and singing were indulged in. Miss Maggle Dugan took a leading part in the singing. Refreshments were served at 12 o'clock, after which a flash-light picture of the guests was taken by Joseph Cherot. Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keyes.

Misses—
Lillie Teal.

disses— Lillie Teal, Florence Teal, Anna Brown, Ella Tobin, Stella Dunn, Maggie Dugan, Jessieurs— Messicurs—
Martin Meyers,
Martin Meyers,
William Tobin,
Walter O'Brien,
Edward Sumner,
Bert Fox,
Edward Leighton,

Henrietta Appersom Florenca Keyes, Ethel Keyes, Maggie King. James Maher, John Dunn, Joseph Cheroc, Henry Cleary, Frank Cleary.

Ida Dugan, Clara Sumner,

Wedding Invitations—Mermod & Jac-card's.

A folly evening was enjoyed by members of the Bidney Euchre and Dancing Club last Wednesday, when Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Novy entertained them with a "hard times" party. The club assembled at Miss Kolb's home and proceeded in a furniture wagon to their destination. The costumes worn were very original and prizes were awarded. Dancing and games were dulged in. Those present were:

Messieurs— Adele Kolb, Octavia Ganahl, Vive Skinner, Laura Kileullen, Misses— Cecelia Ganahl, Birdle Weber, Emma Loyet, Hilda Weber, Joe Kilcullen, Fred Usher, Oliver Nouse, Frank Loyet, Joe Friese, Briggs, Beyer, Will Kaut.

Mr. Whitelawe of West Pine boulevard en-tertained a few friends informally Friday evening, to meet his rilend, Mr. Henry An-drew Burkhardt of Boston. Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Goebring of No. 3418

Pine street gave a small parlor dance Tues-day evening. Those present were: Misses—Artha Hyatt,
Flora Bransieter,
Mesdames—
Gay,
Messleurs—
William McDorman,
John Griffith,
Douglass.

PERSONAL MENTION. Fine Diamonds-Mermod & Jaccard's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Chittenden have returned to Hotel Beers after spending some time in Florida. Mrs. A. T. Anderson and Mrs. W. D. Hall of Carthage, Mo., are visiting Mrs. Sterns of No. 3633 Cook avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Grant Hunter of No. 287 Sheridan avenue will depart for the East soon. On their return they will visit Mr. Hunter's mother, Mrs. U. G. Hunter, Sr., wife of the late Judge Hunter of Louisiana.

Miss Irene Critchfield of West Morgan street is at home after an extended visit in Chicago and the East. Miss Emma Knobelock of North St. Louis will go this evening for an extensive tour of Texas and New Mexico. She will return in August. Signor G. Parisi, the violinist, has returned from Henderson, Ky., where ne played in a concert given by the Choral Society.

Miss Ida Harder entertained friends at her home, No. 4289 Page boulevard, on Wednesday afternoon. Vocal and instru-mental selections were the features of the afternoon.

Mrs. H. F. Hoppius is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Lowe, of Glrard, Ill. Graduation Gifts-Mermod & Jaccard's. J. Mitchell Byrne, C. Wilbur Black, S. A. Shaw and W. Groupe, Jr., will soon leave for their summer home in Florida.

Mrs. Julia G. Hurt of Kansas City, Mo. member of the State Board of Charities and Corrections, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Carton, No. 4189 Delmar boulevard. boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. N. Rosenthal of No. 4046 Cook avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Della Rosenthal, to M. Koenlgsberg, Jr., of this city.

KIRKWOOD. Mrs. T. D. Kimball returned Wednesday from Wellsville, Mo., where she spent a few days at a convention of the Women's Chris-tian Temperance Union.

Mrs. J. D. Ewald departed Monday for the Northern resorts, where she will spend the summer.

the Northern resorts, where she will spend the summer.

Airs. Brags, Mrs. Ellen Clark and Mrs. Hubbard bave gone to South Harpswell Me, where they will remain till September Mrs. Henry G. Wyer departs early in June for Boston, where she will spend the summer with Doctor Wyer's family.

Messrs, George L. Edwards, Daniel & Brown and Albert Edwards and their families will soon go to Charlevolx, Mich., for the summer.

Mrs. Emilie S. Krueger entertained little girls Weathersday afternoom in honor of the infth birthday of her daughter, Marie.

On Thursday afternoom Miss Amy Chandler entertained the active members of the Pano Caub at her home in Onkland. A musical goessing contest was the feature of the afternoom, in which Mrs. L. F. Potter was the successful competition. The guest's prize was awarded to Miss Vodges, who is the guest of Mrs. Albert Edwards.

On account of the weather the al free lunched indoors.

Among the guests were Mmss. H. C. Wyer, L. F. Potter, J. H. Ricker, George lunched indoors.

Among the guests were Mmes. H. C.
Wyer, L. F. Potter, J. H. Ricker, GeorgL. Edwards, J. H. Ewald, Charles King
Herman H. Bollman; Missen-Grace Hazard,
Dorothy Weeks, Hazel Allen, Clara Ricker

L. Edwards, J. H. Ewald, Charles King Horman H. Bollmen; Misses Grace Hazard, Dorothy Weeks, Hazel Allen, Clara Ricket and Laura Brunner.

Mrs. Edward P. Dickson gave a reception Frichey afternoon in honor of the bride of her son, Edward P. Dickson, Jr., who was Miss Marie Louise Clement.

Mrs. John H. Spaiding entertained a party of hailes from St. Louis Saturday afternoon. A dainty luncheon was served under the trees, The guests were Misses Levia, Milligan. Shaw, Coulahan, Witte and Whitehead.

Mrs. Eunfel H. Mullen entertained Our Own Chub Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 She was assisted by her nieces, the Misses Eliza and Mary Reilly. A penny guessing centest was one of the features of the afternoon. Miss McLean answered the greatest number of questions. In writing to telegram with the initial letter of ten words given Misse Neil MeMullen won the prize. Those present were Mines. Blankemeier, Heimbuecher, Suck, McLean, Mudd and Klessoliz Misses Minma Blankemeier, Ida and Martha Brossard, Birdle, Jeanette, Issbel and Stella Helmbuecher, Teckia Lueckin, Kate, Mamie and Neil McMullen and Mary Walsh.

The opera, "His Honor the Mayor," which was to have been sung Friday, has been portponed to Friday, June 5, because the earlier date conflicted with the organ recital at the Methodist Church.

Miss Anna Stemker has been spending a forteight with her uncle, the Reverend B. F. Stemker.

Mrs. George Scaton gave a spring luncheon Monday in honor of her mother, Mrs. George Millen of Omaha, who has come to spend the summer in Kirkwood. The hoase was prettly decorated and in the diningroom all the decorations were of red clover. The center piece was a vary large clover blossom, made up of many small ones on a frame of wire. After the luncheon Mrs. J. H. Ricker played two piano numbers, Mosslowski's "Serenata" and Nevin's "Narcissus," after which Mrs. Alfred Franklin Smith sang "Violets," "The Rose Tree" and "Weerer the Four-Leaf Clovers Grow." Mrs. Seaton then played two violin seles, "Traumerie" and "Hearts and Flowers." Mrs. W. B. Reed has gone North for the summer. Yesterday morning Mrs. Alfred Franklin Smith departed for Kansas City and Lexington. Mo. At the latter place she will sing at the commencement of the Central College. She was accompanied by Miss Eva Williams.

Doctor and Mrs. Mars entertained the Doctor and Mrs. Mars entertained the choir of the Methodist Church Monday evening. The guests composed music for one of the rhymes of Mother Goose, after which they were played and sung by Mrs. Smith. The prize was awarded to Miss Kate Evans. Mr. and Mrs. James G. Belden and their daughter, Ruth, have returned from a visit to Mrs. Selden's family in San Diego, Cal. Last Saturday morning the Kirkwood Choral Club held their last meeting of the season at the High School. They had a review of all the choruses they have learned and afterward Mrs. Bessie Bown Ricker of Chicago gave a few recitations.

The Kirkwood Fortnightly Club closed is programme for the year with an educational at meeting at the High School Saturday, May 23.

Mrs. William Ewing, the retiring presi-

May 23.

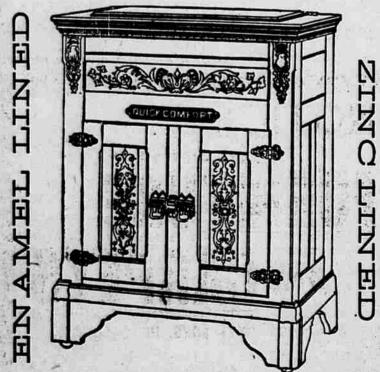

Mrs. William Ewing, the retiring predicts, opened the meeting with a short address, in which she gave a brief review of the work of the club during the year.

Mrs. Stockbridge of Webster Groves was the first speaker on the programme. Her

"QUICK COMFORT" REFRIGERATORS

TILE LINED

Have removable flues that make it easy to keep them clean and insure a perfect circulation of pure, dry, cold air. Have heavy charcoal-filled walls and an outside finish that is as handsome as parlor furniture. Are made in all sizes and styles, and cost no more than the ordinary, non-cleanable hollow-walled kinds.

Ringen Stove Co. ON SIXTH STREET, NEAR LOCUST.

AND ALL LEADING DEALERS.

CLOAK CO., 515 Locust St.

"THE BUSY LITTLE CLOAK HOUSE ROUND THE CORNER"

SALE MONDAY

600 Finest Seven-Gore Knife-Pleated White Duck Skirts, as illustrated, worth $4— $1.50 all you want Monday at..... Skirts, as illustrated, worth $4—

161 Dozen Finest India Linen Shirt Waists, as illustrated; the quality of lawn used in these Waists same as in our $4 Waists all day Monday

Any Suit in the house-come and pick them—choice.....

Odds and Ends of Silk-Lined Spring Jackets-about 60-won't last longchoice

This Fine White Suit, exactly like cut.

MAIL ORDERS FILLED